

I believe the existence of a wide diversity of views in the democratic debate necessary to our continued freedom will not be served by further consolidation of media outlets under fewer and fewer, larger and larger corporations. Therefore I am against the dissolution of the ban on cross-ownership of media in the various markets.